

Power and Conflict Poetry – Great Quotes

What does each quote tell you about the characters and themes in the play?

“colossal wreck” (Ozymandias)

“Runs in blood down palace walls” (London)

“huge peak, black and huge” (The Prelude)

“I gave commands; then all smiles stopped together” (My Last Duchess)

“Boldly they rode and well, into the jaws of death” (The Charge of the Light Brigade)

“merciless iced east winds that knife us” (Exposure)

“exploding comfortably” (Storm on the Island)

“King, honour, human dignity, etcetera” (Bayonet Charge)

“His bloody life in my bloody hands” (Remains)

“Steeled the softening of my face” (Poppies)

“a hundred agonies in black and white” (War Photographer)

“Fly our lives like paper kites” (Tissue)

“I have no passport” (The Emigree)

“Blind me to me own identity” (Checking out my history)

“Little boats stung out like bunting” (Kamikaze)