For teaching staff members there will be 3 disaggregated training days during the academic year. For support staff members there will be 2 flexible training days planned for the end of term 6. It is anticipated that all support staff members (working 39 weeks or more) will attend the flexible training days unless otherwise agreed with their line manager. This may apply where staff members are required to attend any out of hours meetings/events/training and which are allocated against a disaggregated training day.
